EXAM GUIDELINE FOR CANDIDATES

1. Reporting and registration

- Report at the 4th floor registration desk at 8:30 AM; candidates arriving after the written test begins may not be admitted without the coordinator's permission.
- Sign the attendance sheet, submit the document set and collect the roll slip and seat number before entering the hall.
- Candidates must carry a valid photo identity (NID, passport or birth certificate copy with photograph).

2. Written test (9:00 AM - 10:00 AM)

- The test carries 40 marks: a common paper of 25 marks (Islamic knowledge, Arabic, Bangla / English comprehension, teaching aptitude) and a Noorani / subject paper of 15 marks.
- The test is closed book. Mobile phones, smart watches and notes are not permitted in the hall and must be deposited at the desk.
- Write the roll number on every script; use a black or blue pen; do not leave the hall during the first 30 minutes.
- Talking, copying or exchanging materials is treated as unfair means and may lead to disqualification.

3. Viva-voce (from 10:30 AM)

- The viva starts after the written test and candidates are called serially by number and name. Stay in the Common Lobby and remain ready when your serial is near.
- The Selection Board will assess interview, recitation (Tahfeez and general), demo class, subject knowledge, Islamic knowledge, extra skills and Akhlaq / manners; total 60 marks.
- Be prepared to recite from the Qur'an with Tajweed and to take a short demonstration class on a topic given by the Board.
- A candidate absent when called will be called again once and then marked absent.

4. Conduct and dress

- Maintain discipline, punctuality and Islamic manners throughout the Academy premises.
- Wear modest and decent dress; no canvassing or influence of any kind is permitted and it may result in cancellation of candidature.
- Follow the instructions of the invigilators, the registration team and the Board.

5. Result

- Final score = Written test + Viva average, out of 100. The overall pass mark is 60 and the written pass mark is 20.
- A merit list, waiting list and choice list will be prepared by the Selection Board and approved by the Secretary and the Chairman.
- Selected candidates will be informed by the Academy with the proposed department, class and salary. The Board's decision is final.
